plant materials specialist at the SCS West Technical Service Center, Portland, Oregon.

John Tippie, deputy state conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service in Ohio, has been named state conservationist in Connecticut. He succeeds Robert Halsted who was named state conservationist for Colorado. Merritt Burdick, state conservationist in Colorado, has been transferred to the SCS office in Washington, D. C.

Rex Tracy, soil conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service, Washington, D. C., has been named assistant state conservationist for SCS in Nebraska.

John Vance, deputy regional forester for state and private forestry in the California Region of the U. S. Forest Service, has been named director of state and private forestry in the Southeastern Area, Atlanta, Georgia.

Glen V. Wilson, a soil scientist with Soil Consultants, Inc., has been named vice-president of Washington Testing, Inc., Fairfax, Virginia.

Paul Zwerman, professor of soil conservation at Cornell University, retired recently and was named professor emeritus. He has since joined the Bureau of Land Management in Socorro, New Mexico.

Deaths

John S. Barnes, retired state conservationist, Soil Conservation Service, and a Fellow and Charter Member of the Society, Berkeley, California.

William Daniel, farmer, South Dakota state conservation committeeman, and chairman of the Eastern South Dakota Soil and Water Conservation Research Farm, Inc., Wentworth, South Dakota.

Ernest Douglas, Phoenix, Arizona.

L. Raymer Jones, Jr., Paris Kentucky.

L. F. Lawhon, Fort Worth, Texas.

Billy D. Seay, state soil scientist, Soil Conservation Service, Albuquerque, New Mexico.

W. H. Tucker, area conservationist, Soil Conservation Service, Grove Hill, Alabama.
